Good Health and Good Nature

need not cost you dear; to get them and keep them---just drink

Hires Rootbeer.

There's no drink in the world like Hires' Rootbeer, in composition, in preparation, or in popularity. Its wonderful success is a matter of history, and can only be explained by the fact that people everywhere recognize and appreciate its health and pleasure-giving qualities.

Let the counterfeiters of Hires' settle among themselves as to whose mixture will color the most water, and whose flavor the most. That's a matter of interest to themselves only. Remember there is but one pure, carefully-prepared and honestly-made extract of Nature's own Roots, Herbs, Barks and Berries, and that is HIRES' Rootbeer.

WHAT A PASTOR SEES AND HEARS

ITEMS OF PERSONAL INTEREST TO CHURCH PEOPLE.

PEOPLE.

The fifth annual meeting of the Scotch-Irish Congress, held this year at springfield, Ohio-which has been pronounced a great success by the local committee-seems to favor New-Yorkers. Robert Bonner was re-elected as president, and for the fifth time Dr. John Hall preached the sermon in the service, held in Ulster fashion, with the Psalms sung, as in the olden time. The auditorium of the City Hall was crowded, and the Protestant ministers of the city, including Baptists, Lutherans and Methodists, took an interest in the Congress. Dr. Hall preached also in the Presbyterian and in the Methodist churches.

Dr. Hall appeared last week as an editorial writer in "The Presbyterian Banner," publishing an article cutitled "Concerning Revision," in which he said he was persunded that it would be a gain to the Presbyterian Church and he said he was persuased.

be a gain to the Presbyterian Church and te the community if the Westminster Shorter Catechism were kept before the people, and if the young were trained in it in the family and in the Sabbathschool. He had this to say about some of the questions which are likely to come before the General Assembly: "We could thus teach the rising generation that the Word of God is 'the only rule to direct is' in religious life; that 'the sonis of believers are at their death made perfect in holiness and do immediately pass into glory'; therefore 'progressive sanctincation' is a misleading phrase, for which, by the way, some writers (according to their explanations) ought to substitute 'progressive glorification,' '

The Industrial Christian Alliance has taken the large building at No. 170 Bleecker-st., belonging to the Stewart estate, where it will have room to or ganize thoroughly the various departments of its rescue work for men. This institution was organized something more than a year and a half ago by a number of clergymen and laymen prominent in the various religious denominations. Among them are William L. Strong, president of the Central National Bank; Strong, president of the Central National Bank; Owing W. McWilliams, trensurer of the Manhatian Elevated Road; James G. Beemer, George D. Mackay, of Vernilye & Co.; S. M. Eixby, William A. Latide well, Henry J. Davlson, Jr., E. B. Harper, president of the Mutual Reserve Fund Life Association; Edwin Packard, president of the New-York Guaranty and Packard, president of the New-York Guaranty and Indomnity Company; Rowles Colgate, A. W. Dennett, John S. Hayler, Charles J. Townsend, and Drs. R. S. MacArthur, Charles Cuthbert Hall, George E. Strohridge, John R. Paxton, David James Burrell, A. H. Lewis, William R. Richards and James M. King.

The April issue of "State Notes" of the Young Men's Christian associations of New-York contains facts and figures of the growth of this work in the State during the year. There are 150 associations, with 113 general secretaries and sixty-eight assistants; also thirty-three physical directors, who have in charge the physical department of association work. This feature marks a rapid growth in that so many men are giving their chitre time as secretaries to this department of Christian work. There are forty-five buildings owned by the association, with a valuation of $3,004,250. One hundred and forty-one of the 150 associations have an aggregate membership of 38,044, with 10,918 active members. There are twenty-seven associations among railroad men, eighteen in the colleges of the State, four for termans, and one for French-speaking young men. There is an organized work for boys in fifty-eight of the associations, having their own religious meetings and Bible classes. Although the work of the association is so largely preventive in its nature, over 1,200 professed conversions are given.

SOROSIS WILL NOT ADMIT LOTTA.

REJECTED BY THE CLUB BECAUSE SHE WAS AN ACTRESS.

All sorts of feelings, from mild surprise to violent grief and wrath, have inspired the members and friends of Sorosis, and the friends, personal and professional, of Miss Carlotta Crabtree, on account of her rejection as a member by the club at its meeting held on Monday at Sherry's. Miss Crabtree is a well-known and popular actress, whose stage name is Lotta. Site was proposed for membership in Sorosis by Mrs. Edward E. Kidder, the wife of a successful framatic author, and her vouchers were Mrs. A. M.

Palmer, the wife of the theatrical manager, and Mrs. sydney Rosenfeld, whose husband is also a writer of plays and comic opera librettos. She was further recommended for membership by Miss Georgia Cayvan, who was not at the meeting, however, being now in the West with the Lyceum Theatre Company. No objection was urged or thought of, as far as can be learned, to Miss Crabtree's admission, except that she was an actress. Her standing among the content of the content of calling has always been of the very highest. She is esteemed and respected by all who know her; she is rich and she has been prominent in charitable works. Those who were the most enthusiastic supporters of Miss CrabTee denounce the action of the club as cruel and unreasonable and the result of narrow prejudice, while her more moderate friends say that a few members of the club feared that if too many theatrical people were admitted to the club there would be danger of their trying to control it. Miss Crabtee herself apparently does not much care whether she is admitted or not, or at least she preserves a becoming dignity in regard to her re-

Miss Crabtree at the election. Five are enough to cause the rejection of a candidate. Fannie I. Helmuth, the chalrman of the Executive Committee, presided at the meeting in the absence of the president, Mrs. Lozier, and all the vice-presidents. She announced the rejection of the candidate, and is the only person supposed to know officially how many adverse votes were tast. Several other names of candidates for admission were proposed at the same meeting. Mrs. John Dillon was rejected after Miss Crabtree had been, and the names of Mrs. Thaddeus B., Wakeman and two or three others were withdrawn. There are several members of the club besides Miss Georgie Cayvan who are or have been among them.
